

-
- Use this form to address the regulatory requirements for conducting any research procedures while conducting research with children.
-

1. IRB Protocol Title:
2. Principal Investigator:
3. State the reason for including this population in your project:
4. Provide protocol-specific responses to why this population should be included in this research.
 - a. Describe why the research involves no more than minimal risk to the subjects:
 - b. Describe why inclusion of this population will not adversely affect the rights and welfare of the subjects:
 - c. Do you expect that additional pertinent information will become available during or after the research? Yes No
If yes, describe how the information will be provided to participants:
